A homestyle tradition

At Gourmet Nantel, we've been making Montreal Fudge authentic cream fudge since 1979. A true label of origin, our cream fudge is the product of old-fashioned know-how, handed down across three generations. While staying faithful to time-honoured production methods, we've evolved with the times and kept up with the tastes of the day. It's through a fortunate blend of innovation and respect for tradition that we uncovered the little secrets making our cream fudge the absolute crème of cream fudges. Over time, we continued to refine our methods and expertise, in response to ever-increasing demand. From humble beginnings and through innumerable batches of sweet goodness, we have emerged as the Number 1 producer of cream fudge worldwide.
